VENEZIA (Italy) April 21.—Of all the methods adopted by the camorrist prisoners to excite sympathy or to cause a riot, none surpassed in novelty and effectiveness that of Giuseppe Esposito, who at the end of the trial today, tore a glass eye from his head, and hurling it at the judge, stamped the courtroom. Then he fell in a faint and President Bianchi suspended the sitting.

According to the state, Esposito, who is known as an usurer, is a dangerous character and succeeded "Ernesto" Alfano as the head of the camorrist who Alfano fled to the United States, there to fall into the hands of Louis. KANSAS CITY (Mo.) April 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Does constant bathing turn a girl into an aquatic creature with dorsal fins? A mother, whose daughter was recently taken from her by order of the juvenile court, and placed under control of the Y.W.C.A., thinks it will, judging from a letter written to Judge E. E. Porter, field of the juvenile court. The letter read: "Mr. Judge, I hear they are keeping my girl at a place they call the Y.W.C.A., trying to make an 'athletic' out of her. Besides, they make her take baths three times a week. She ain't no fish. Can't you give her back to me before she is ruined?" The judge replied, stating his belief that the State could take much better care of the girl than her mother could.

The prisoner attempted to prove an alibi as far as the meeting at Bagnoli was concerned. At that time he was traveling, he said, between Milan and Rome. He gave a detailed account of his wanderings prior to the murder of Cuocolo and his wife, and gradually wrought himself up to a fine frenzy. He concluded in substance, as follows: "It is true that I concealed myself at the time when I learned that I was to be arrested. I was suffering, as I am even now, from heart disease. In

REPORT FROM MEXICO DECLARES DIAZ READY TO RESIGN OFFICE.

Information From a High Source Sets May 5 as Day of Abdication.

Formally to Turn Reins of Government Over to Minister of Foreign Affairs, Who Shall Call New Election. Move Would Enshrine Executive in Hearts of Countrymen and Leave Him Practical Shaper of Nation.

(Copyright, 1911, by the Los Angeles Times, The New York Times and The Chicago Record-Herald.)

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

MEXICO, April 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] How one important and influential body in the Republic—one hitherto not particularly distinguished by its warmest support of the Diaz administration—feels toward the revolution and the actual interior situation, is shown by an Episcopal letter issued by the Archbishop of Mexico and read today in all churches.

In this letter the venerable prelate ordered all parish priests to read, at every mass and at all other religious ceremonies, prayers for early restoration of peace and concord throughout the republic.

Battle bulletins, while continuing to chronicle Federal victories around Puebla, also continue to demonstrate that the revolutionary forces are very numerous and enjoy military organization and hold territory within 125 miles of the capital.

Despite the official bulletins of Federal victories in this quarter, which were published broadcast this morning and which are largely confirmed by independent sources, I saw the Eleventh battalion of infantry, some hundred strong, with camp equipment ready to take the field, march through the city to the railway station and there entrain, as I was informed, for Puebla.

The appearance of the troops was better and smarter than any I have yet seen, but they did not seem at all gay over the prospects of active service, and their march through the thronged business streets at a slow pace excited neither applause nor enthusiasm among the spectators, though the purpose of the movement was well known.

PUEBLA TO BE MILITARY BASE.

Reports from authentic sources convince me that relatively large bodies of Federals are being concentrated at Puebla, and that the fortifications of this naturally very strong strategic point are being pushed with feverish activity. There is much reason to believe that should civil war continue the Federals will constitute this point a military base.

In contradiction of what was cabled you four days ago I must say now that recruiting for the Federal army is proceeding quite briskly. I have seen nearly 200 of these recruits myself at the barracks and they wore neither traditional hobbles nor handcuffs of hemp. Some think that the inducement of increase in pay to $1 per day may account for the better results obtained by the recruiting sergeant. My opinion is that the possibility of war with the gringos, happily today more remote than yesterday, is attracting volunteers.

In connection with the mobilization and fortification of Puebla, an interesting piece of information has just been imparted to me. It may be true; in view of the source it ought to be. It is expected, according to this informant, that when Vice-President Corral reaches Europe, which should be in a few days, he will cable that his consultations with distinguished physicians, whom he is going to see, have resulted unfavorably and that a longer rest and greater care of his health is required than had been thought, and that, under the circumstances, he deems it his duty not to await the termination of his six months' leave of absence, but to resign by cable, making room for a more active man.

DIAZ TO RESIGN ON MAY 5?

In this way Diaz would be relieved of his greatest incubus, and at the same time Corral would be relegated to obscurity without the personal fortification of this despite the suggestion of political expediency, Diaz, in his loyalty, has refused to subject him.

The story then runs that Diaz, on the first day of May will proceed to Puebla to review the troops and on the fifth of May, the anniversary of his memorable victory over the French at that place, he will formally resign the reins of power into the hands of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, who, under the Constitution, would become the acting President, charged with the duty of issuing a call for new elections in a few months.

My informant further says that on this occasion Diaz proposes a farewell address to his people after the fashion of George Washington.

May fifth is not far away, but is not too early a date for the good news to come to this distracted country. One thing is certain, if Diaz should take his departure this way, he would receive popular acclaim greater than has ever before been his and would continue to be first in the hearts of his country and actual shaper of its destinies as long as he lives.

In conclusion, I must bear my testimony to the admirable attitude of the people here, high and low, poor and rich, during the days of tension, happily relaxed. Our colony here is composed largely of orderly and cultured people, but here, as elsewhere, we are not distinguished for self-effacement or the tricks of conciliation.

Yet during the last six days, while newspapers with the largest circulation, were filled with pictures and descriptions of large numbers of American citizens who have been, as is undoubtedly true, either killed or wounded, or taken prisoners in recent engagements; during the days when, except to those accustomed to slitting evidence, it appeared that the opponents of the government in the North were exclusively gringos and that they certainly constituted the bulk of the revolution—during these days I have not heard of an insulting word or a menace directed at any of our countrymen here, and I myself have been the recipient of courtesies never exceeded by my experience in other world cities.

MEXICO'S TACTICAL MISTAKES.

On the other hand, the government continues to make tactical mistakes. After having given the rebels of Sonora a good drubbing they have postponed the State elections which were to take place next month, until July. The revolutionists say, of course, these elections will never be held—that no elections will be held until the government is beaten down upon its knees.

Disorders in the higher schools in the capital have been handled so awkwardly that the whole student body is in revolt against the educational regime and is suspected of being inclined to throw its fortune with the anti-government forces in Congress.

This afternoon a change in the methods of electing Deputies was being discussed. The project which is supposed to have the government's approval, and which was handed in today, requires candidates to be Mexican citizens, twenty-five years old and not members of any ecclesiastical body.

But the great desideratum—more so in this country where distances are so immense and provincial characteristics so different than in the United States—that deputies should be residents of the districts they represent, or at least occasionally visit them, is nowhere provided for.

The entirely spontaneous withdrawal by Senor De la Barra, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, of several of the more serious charges preferred against American officials, in connection with the fighting at Agua Prieta, in the note in reply to American requests for the safeguarding of American residents of border cities, has cleared the international atmosphere wonderfully. It has shown again that though their acts are some times susceptible of misinterpretation.

ELDER MADERO REACHES CAMP; ATTACK ON JUAREZ DELAYED.

Bent on Mission of Peace, Father Finds Insurrecto Son Indisposed to Listen—Perilous Trip of Over a Thousand Miles Ends Near Baucha—Rebel Leader Agrees to Defer Hostilities for Another Day.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

MADERO'S CAMP, near El Paso, April 21.—Simultaneously with the arrival in camp tonight of Francisco Madero, Sr., his brother, Ernesto; his son, Alfonso; Raphael L. Hernandez and Frederico Moya, a merchant of Chihuahua who joined the mission at that city.

These men, thinking to meet the rebel chieftain west of Chihuahua, traveled 1000 Mexican miles to catch up with him. By reason of disrupted railroads, burned bridges, derailments and other vicissitudes, what should have been a mere jump across the Rio Grande required seven whole days, ten changes of cars, four relays of horses and the circumventing of the State.

The last stage of the journey was by horse, from Baucha, thirty kilometers south of here, where the battle was fought last Saturday. Senor Moya rode at the head of the weary cavalcade with a flag of truce.

The emblem, ordinarily a towel, served faithfully for the party during the further parts of the trip in that capacity, but did not live up to its new dignity, for occasionally Moya's arm would tire and the "flag" would get so tangled in the cactus that the services of half of the party were required to release it.

The weary animals at last plunged into what seemed to be a bottomless canyon. For a mile or more the trail wound in a deep arroyo and then suddenly burst on the camp. Everywhere the peace missionaries arrived at 9 o'clock tonight, the party consisting of Francisco Madero, Sr., his brother, Ernesto; his son, Alfonso; Raphael L. Hernandez and Frederico Moya, a merchant of Chihuahua who joined the mission at that city.

Request for Representation on Senate Committee Meets Little Favor.

Stalwart's Refusal to Recognize Insurgents Means a Split in Ranks.

"Party-Within-a-Party" Idea Spells Hostilities in the Near Future.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Formal demands made today by insurgent Republican Senators that they be recognized as an organization distinct from the Republican majority of the Senate and that they be given one-fourth of all of the majority memberships of the committees and control of these assignments were, rejected by a vote of 7 to 4 at a meeting of the Senate Committee on Committees.

Representatives of the regular Republican organization in the Senate stated freely that they determined to check the insurgent demands after it was learned that President Taft resented the insurgent attitude in opposing policies recommended by him and their action in putting barriers in the way of his re-nomination in 1912.

That the insurgent members of the committee did not bolt is said to be due to the fact that the rejection of the proposition submitted did not carry with it a decision to give this faction a lesser number of places than they were entitled to in accordance with their number, which is about one insurgent to four regulars.

After the committee meeting, both the regular and insurgent forces went into sessions which continued until late in the day. Plans were made for renewed hostilities tomorrow, when assignments will be offered to insurgents as individual Republican Senators.

LA FOLLETTE RESOLUTION.

The contest was in connection with a resolution by Senator La Follette. The preamble stated the purpose of the insurgents as follows:

"Whereas there is a division among the Republicans of the Senate, a minority of whom are known as progressive Republicans, to wit: Senators Clapp, La Follette, Bourne, Borah, Brown, Dixon, Cummins, Bristow, Crawford, Gronna, Poinsett and Works—each division being well recognized in the Senate and throughout the country as based on clearly defined differences on important legislative measures and questions of great public interest; and

"Whereas the Republican Senators termed progressive Republicans are in the minority in the ratio of about 1 to 4, now therefore be it

"Resolved, by the Committee on Committees that the Committee on Committees be accorded by the Committee on Committees such proportional representation upon the committees of the United States Senate as their numbers bear to the total membership of each of said committees, and the assignments of one progressive Republican upon each committee, be designated by Senators La Follette, Bourne, Cummins and Bristow, the four progressive Republican members of the Committee on Committees which said assignment and designation shall be approved and ratified by the Committee on Committees."

DISRUPTION FEARED.

The La Follette resolution was debated at length, all the Republican regulars insisting there was no precedent for the recognition of a minority within the party. Some of them predicted the adoption of such a resolution would disrupt the party as similar demands would have to be dealt with later in party conventions. The vote follows:

For—La Follette, Bourne, Cummins and Bristow.

Against—Gallinger, Lodge, Penrose, Heyburn, Warren, Smoot and Bradley.

Immediately rumors spread that the insurgents would bolt the committee and refuse to abide by the committee assignments made under any other plan and would seek an alliance with the Democratic minority to overthrow the control of the regular Republicans, but apparently there was no foundation for these reports.

One insurgent member of the committee said the future course of the insurgents would depend upon whether they were treated fairly by the regulars.

The Democratic Committee on Committees met today. The minority lists may be ready tomorrow.

Americans Seize Arms.

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) April 21.—Four cases of arms and several thousands rounds of ammunition were seized yesterday at Carrizo Springs, Texas, by a detachment of four troops of the Third United States Cavalry. The shipment was in the railroad depot at Carrizo Springs, consigned to H. C. Allen. "Allen" did not call for the package.

DRAMATIC ARRIVAL.

The weary animals at last plunged into what seemed to be a bottomless canyon. For a mile or more the trail wound in a deep arroyo and then suddenly burst on the camp. Everywhere the peace missionaries arrived at 9

REYES ACTIVE ON PEACE PLAN.

Keeps Wires to Mexico City Busy Entire Day.

Gives Impression He Sees a Way Out of Dilemma.

Hope of Armistice May Delay Attack on Juarez.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Mexican revolutionaries may yet find it unnecessary to attack Juarez, and an armistice within a few days is still a strong possibility.

This was the inference drawn from tonight's activities of Dr. Vasquez Gomez, head of the confidential agency of the Mexican revolutionaries here.

Dr. Gomez sent several telegrams to Mexico, but the only information as to their contents was given in a statement he issued.

"It is impossible for me," said Dr. Gomez, "to reveal the nature of negotiations in which I am engaged tonight. All I can say is that within a few days I may be able to communicate something of great interest to the Mexican people."

Dr. Gomez gave the impression that he had set to work on some new plans which may prove satisfactory to Gen. Francisco I. Madero, Jr. He was optimistic, and it is thought he has found some way out of the dilemma presented by the formal demand of Gen. Madero that Juarez be evacuated or that Gen. Diaz resign the Presidency.

Dr. Gomez is said to have made such strong representations to the insurgent leaders that the attack on Juarez may be deferred for several days.

MADERO RIDICULES TALK OF ARMISTICE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
EL PASO (Tex.), April 21.—"Ridiculous," said Francisco I. Madero, when shown the Associated Press Washington dispatch quoting Dr. Gomez that there should be an armistice until peace terms could be arranged.

"Why this waiting so long?" Madero asked. Then, "If they will give us Juarez we will wait three or four weeks," he declared.

As turned to his brother, Raoul Madero, and to Joseph Garibaldi, one of his chief lieutenants, and showed them the dispatch. They laughed at it.

Madero was at the time discussing matters regarding the fortifications of Juarez with his aides.

Shortly after the conversation, Mrs. Ernest Hughes of El Paso was a caller in the camp and Madero dropped his fighting plans long enough to receive her graciously. He delivered to Mrs. Hughes the sword and pistol of Oscar O. Creighton, the American adventurer who was killed in the Maderista ranks in battle near Juarez last week. Creighton was a friend of the late President.

Creighton's wife, Mrs. Creighton, was present invited Mrs. Hughes and her escort to remain in camp for luncheon, which was served on a box with a clean white tablecloth.

"We say they are coming into Juarez this afternoon, but they are late and cowardly," declared Col. M. Tambo, commander of the Federal garrison, speaking of the insurgents late today.

OSCAR CREIGHTON'S IDENTITY.
Butte Citizens Believe the Rebel Leader Reported Dead, Is Really Wheelock, a Fugitive Embezzler.

BUTTE (Mont.) April 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Information from Boston, tonight is to the effect that the daredevil "Oscar Creighton," leader of a band of insurgents, who has been reported killed, is Oscar M. Wheelock, the fugitive Boston embezzler, alias Rodney H. Merrick of Butte, embezzler here from the National Packing Company of about $2000.

Wheelock, or Merrick, as he was known in Butte, figured in an escape from the officers that involved Mayor Charles P. Nevins, he being accused by former Police Captain William Bucker of aiding the man's get-away.

Wheelock's wife is a relative of Mrs. Nevins.

Wheelock got out of Butte when his identity became known, acting upon the advice of Mayor Nevins, according to the testimony of Mrs. Wheelock, and headed for Los Angeles. T. J. Falvey, president of the Massachusetts Bonding Company at Boston, from which concern Wheelock embezzled $10,000 while auditor, positively identified "Creighton" as Wheelock, through a picture received from San Antonio.

Diaz Once a Boy.

SYMPATHY FOR WAYWARD YOUTH LEADS TO PARDON OF CONVERSE.

BY STEPHEN DONALD.

(Copyright, 1911, by the Los Angeles Times, the New York Times, and the Chicago Record-Herald.)

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEXICO CITY, April 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Diaz this morning made his own gracious contribution to the era of good feeling. Having ascertained that it would not be disagreeable to the President, Ambassador Wilson sent H. C. Converse of Los Angeles, father of Lawrence H. Blatt, who, with Edward H. Blatt, has been held in prison at Juarez for some time, as a filibuster, to Gen. Diaz's house this morning.

He was accompanied by an official of the Embassy. The President received the grief-stricken father in a most gracious way and listened courteously to the recital of young Converse's juvenile waywardness. Suddenly the old warrior began to take the boy's part.

"Hold on, son," said "I was a boy once, and was fond of fighting. Perhaps only because we are proverbially tolerant with our own failings, I think there are worse faults than that. No, I like fighting boys, and here is a full pardon for your son and Blatt, so that they may fight another day. But they must make a promise for them that they shall not return to take part in our unhappy family quarrel."

As may be imagined, the promise was gladly made by Mr. Converse, who left on his journey with a letter to the authorities, which will cause the release of the two youths.

MOTHER OVERJOYED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
EL PASO (Tex.), April 21.—Mrs. C. H. Converse, mother of one of the Mexican boys ordered released from the Juarez prison by President Diaz today, was greatly elated this afternoon when shown the Associated Press dispatch from Mexico City stating that she had been promised their liberty.

She is worried, however, lest her son meet with injury if the city of Juarez is attacked. It will take several days for the order of their release to reach Juarez, and meantime the boys must remain in jail.

MADERO REACHES CAMP.

groups of men huddled over small brushwood fires. Stars lighted the horizon and to the north the belching furnaces of the El Paso smelter cast a glow to the sky line of the mountains. Family matters came to the fore immediately after the usual extravagant Spanish greetings. Senor Madero, wife of the general, was making a visit to her husband, seated on a quilted rug, and a candle lighted the room.

No more romantic setting for a war picture could be imagined. It was some time before Don Francisco, the elder, could broach the subject uppermost in his mind. Then the voices dropped. The general, of course, was familiar with the subject at hand. He was first told by an Associated Press correspondent who interviewed him at Bustillos two weeks ago, and later formally by Senor Madero.

There was no discussion, but arrangements were made for a full conference.

ELDER MADERO HOPEFUL.
Gen. Madero is a little man with a pointed black beard and a suave, diplomatic manner. He looked like one who had wearied of visitors who came to talk peace. All sorts of unofficial commissions have called upon him. To present one is semi-official at least, however, as the government has lent every aid in making it possible.

The young Madero has said frequently that Diaz must resign before negotiations are possible, but nevertheless his father and others are able to impress him with a view that real reform would be greatly retarded by the iron hand of the President at the helm.

Mrs. Madero returned to El Paso with the peace envoys tonight. She was greatly relieved to find that her husband was suffering no bad effects from the wound in the hand received at Casas Grandes.

SENDS ULTIMATUM TO QUIT JUAREZ.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
EL PASO (Tex.), April 21.—If the Mexican government would avoid international complications it must order Gen. Navarro to evacuate Juarez at once.

This is the ultimatum sent by Gen. Francisco I. Madero, Jr., to Dr. Vasquez Gomez at Washington today, to be communicated to the Mexican government.

In addition, Gen. Madero sent word to Dr. Gomez by way of the El Paso Junta that he was well aware of the difference between an armistice and peace negotiations, which it was suggested should follow the arrival of Gen. Madero. He has taken the position that an evacuation of Juarez is essential before he will consider an armistice.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

EL PASO (Tex.), April 21.—All negotiations between the insurgent and the Mexican government were officially called off late today. Oscar Branniff and Esquivel O'Brien, two Congressmen from Mexico City, who have been attempting to get Madero to accept some peace proposal, received a telegram this afternoon, just after they had sent a messenger under a flag of truce with a final appeal to the rebel leader.

The message was from Mexico City, although they refused to say who sent it. It informed them that the demands of Madero were such that they could not be entertained and asked them to drop their negotiations. Already the commissioners had practically given up hope and had issued a statement crowing upon Madero the blame for failure.

About the time the telegram arrived a cloud of insurgents drifted out of the mountains and canyons, headed toward Juarez. The Federals are feared. However, it proved to be only Pancho Villa's command uniting with the main body.

Peace talks occupied the day in the rebel camp. In Juarez the Federals having nothing else to do, put in the time erecting a few more fortifications.

MADERO UNCHANGED.
All day Madero's unvaried statement to reporters and correspondents was that nothing had developed to make him change his decision of yesterday to open the battle today. He bided himself receiving messages from the El Paso Junta, visiting with his wife, who came from San Antonio, and receiving a telegram from Gen. Francisco Isabel Uriarte, Mexican Consul at Douglas, Ariz., passed through El Paso last evening on his way to Mexico to report to President De la Barra regarding the fighting.

The Consul said he had urgent orders to make all possible haste to Mexico City, and it is believed his trip will have an important bearing on the international situation which has resulted from the killing and wounding of Americans in Douglas.

"We know that the gentlemen are patriots, and that if left to think and act for themselves, they will listen to the call of their brethren and avoid dangerous rocks ahead, and our only fear is, therefore, in the possibility of their being influenced by others than their own."

Americans continued to visit the insurgent camp throughout the day, and with a few exceptions no supplies at the copper company stores. The soldiers were quiet and orderly.

Nacoziari has been marooned for several days because of the destruction of all railroad bridges in this vicinity, but there is enough provisions and coal for the concentration to last two weeks. Before that time it is expected that the bridges will be repaired, so that trains carrying coal and supplies can pass safely over them.

MEXICAN-MORMON CLASH.
Late Correspondence From Colony in Chihuahua Tells of Serious Injury of an American.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SALT LAKE, April 21.—Frank Lewis, an American, was probably fatally hurt, and Juan Sosa, a Mexican, was shot dead in a cash between Mexicans and members of the Mormon colony at Colonia Dublan, Chihuahua, according to correspondence received here by the Desert News, dated April 14.

The Mormons are attempting to suppress persistent thieving.

Trouble started when Ernest Hatch, one of their number, fired a shot gun loaded with salt into a group of men who were four miles from the colony. Hatch and companions then followed the men to a house where, the correspondent says, much stolen property was recovered, and informally arrested them.

Hearing that Sosa was inciting Mexicans to liberate their fellow-countrymen, five colonists, armed, went to look for him. They had no success, but a shovelful of Lewis' skull. He was then shot.

The Americans were arrested and taken to Nueva Casas Grandes, where Madero, a rebel leader, gave them a hearing and liberated them, besides paying him $1000 in ransom.

Continuing, the letter says: "The new rebel president at Colonia Juarez is Senor Gonzalez, an ex-Federal who left his position because of the revolutionary uprising."

"The rebels have gone through the colony, securing every nook and corner for hours. They had no mail for nearly a week, but Capt. Creighton has promised that no more bridges will be destroyed, that trains will not be interfered with. We understand that such an agreement has been entered into by the rebel leaders and the management of the railroad."

SAVING OF DIAZ DIES.
Former Captain of Mallory Line Steamer Who Aided Present President Years Ago, Passes Away in East.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
MINNEOLA (N. Y.) April 21.—The death here of Samuel F. Phillips, a wealthy retired sea captain, recalls an interesting incident in the career of President Diaz of Mexico. For many years Capt. Phillips was in command of a Mallory line ship in Mexican waters.

On one occasion a man disguised as a Quaker came aboard at night. He told him to be careful Diaz, who was an insurgent, was fleeing from the Mexican troops.

Shortly after his appearance soldiers boarded the ship and demanded that Phillips give up Diaz. This the American captain refused to do. Diaz went ashore as soon as safe and escaped.

TWO COAHUILA TOWN FALL.
Insurgents Forces Unofficially Reported in Control of Parras and San Pedro After Fights With Federals.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
EAGLE PASS (Tex.) April 21.—Unofficial reports received here say the Mexican rebels attacked Parras, in Coahuila, yesterday. They are said to have blown up a bridge with dynamite, and then the rebels congregated in the structure. It is claimed many Federals were killed.

The town of San Pedro, in Coahuila, was captured and is said to be in the possession of the rebels. Yesterday a force of cavalrymen was sent down the Rio Grande from here on reports of fighting near Guerrero.

terpretation the high officials here, as well as in Washington, are leaving no stone unturned to continue to maintain and even to improve the present cordial relations between the two nations.

It can be said today for the first time in many days that no tension exists between the United States and Mexico and that the manner in which their vexatious complications have been surmounted augurs well for the future.

NACOZARI IN REBEL HANDS.
Insurgents Band, Well Supplied With Money, Enters Town Without Excitement and Buys Supplies.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
NACOZARI (Sonora, Mex.), April 21.—Antonio Rojas, with 250 rebels, entered this town today. The appearance of the insurgent army caused some excitement, but did not interfere with the operation of the big concentrator of the Mochitama Copper and Phelps-Dodge companies.

The rebels seemingly are well supplied with funds and purchased for cash large quantities of supplies at the copper company stores. The soldiers were quiet and orderly.

Nacoziari has been marooned for several days because of the destruction of all railroad bridges in this vicinity, but there is enough provisions and coal for the concentration to last two weeks. Before that time it is expected that the bridges will be repaired, so that trains carrying coal and supplies can pass safely over them.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SANTA CRUZ, April 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The last will of Jeanette Everts, the famous philanthropist, who left an estate of $75,000, was broken last night when the court decided by a jury verdict favoring the beneficiaries named in the first will executed in 1904.

The last will, made three days before the death of the estate entirely of Los Angeles, was rendered void on the ground that the woman was of unsound mind at the time.

It is the bulk of the estate, but many churches and other institutions received gifts. The Y.M.C.A. gets $2000, the Y.W.C.A. $1000, the State W.C.T.U. and W.C.T.U. at Monterey, the tri-county and Santa Cruz, $1000; local First Baptist, Congregational, Presbyterian and of Officers.

PASADENA, April 21.—The Board of Trade bond boosters are busier than a hen with one chicken getting the voters lined up in favor of the bonds which will be voted a week from yesterday.

An official act of yesterday was the mailing out of a letter contradicting the spurious circular mailed to the voters before last by some one signing themselves "The Anti-High Bridge Committee," which made many a citizen believe that the bonds were actually made by the Board of Trade and City Council.

The Board of Trade committee's answer gives a short history of the long and arduous work which has been done to get the bonds in shape to vote bonds and which was commenced nearly two years ago. It gives the prices of the various propositions showing that they are being offered to the people at a very reasonable figure, winding up with the declaration that the "Anti-High Bridge Committee" is composed of three wealthy men living on Grand avenue, who have been opposed to the proposed bridge merely for personal reasons.

The spurious circular and the reply of the Boosters' Committee is said to have won many votes from people who heretofore have not taken much interest in the matter, but who now state they are opposed to the method being pursued by the opponents. All day yesterday voters were taken to the site of the proposed bridge to Carmelita playgrounds and to Monk's Hill, which it is proposed to buy for a city park.

An enthusiastic mass meeting was held last night at the High School building and another big justification will be held at the Board of Trade room tonight. The committee has provided music and an excellent programme of amusements.

NEW POLO OFFICERS.

The annual meeting of the members of the Pasadena Polo Club was held yesterday afternoon when the directors elected for another year were R. G. Neustadt, Carleton Burke, T. H. McCoy, Thomas Weiss, Sr., D. M. Linnard, Dr. Z. M. Malley, T. D. Ford, J. B. Coulston, Dr. A. H. Savage, J. B. Miller and Frank G. Hogan.

Following the general meeting the directors met and elected as officers Frank G. Hogan, president; John B. Miller, vice-president; Dr. A. H. Savage, secretary; J. B. Coulston, treasurer.

The secretary's report showed that the club has expended during the past year $12,334.06 for improvements at Tournament Park, enlarging the clubhouse, building a polo field, new pony stalls. There are now 100 active members of the club. An innovation in club membership will be the women's membership which will be sold for $15 each. It was decided to continue the practice of giving away free Saturday afternoon during the summer.

KIRKNESS SCORES AGAIN.

The second performance of The Kirkness at the Maryland amphitheater was given last night to a crowd which was fully as large as that of the first night and the children's training school was made richer by many hundreds of dollars. A matinee has been arranged for this afternoon for the benefit of the children. The Kirkness has been cut to 10 cents and already there has been an enormous sale of reserved seats.

The official figures have not been made up yet, but an estimate of the profits for the first two performances, including the sale of seats, boxes, programmes and flower and candy booths, is made at from $750 to $10,000, which will go to the support of the training school.

NEW DEAN FOR THROOP.

George A. Damon, a prominent electrical engineer, at present managing engineer for the Bion J. Arnold Company, Los Angeles, has been elected to the position of Dean of Engineering of Throop Institute. This announcement was made yesterday by President Scherer, who states that Throop is very fortunate to secure the services of Mr. Damon, who has been connected with many engineering positions in different parts of the United States. He was recommended by Dr. Henry S. Carter, dean of engineering of the Michigan University.

READY FOR LIBRARIANS.

The entertainment committee which will look after all arrangements connected with the annual convention of the American Library Association, which will be held in Pasadena May 15 to 24, inclusive, announced that everything is now ready for the visitors. The convention will be started on the evening of May 15 by an address of welcome by Mayor Thum, who will have been installed in his new job and will be his maiden effort as a "Welcome to Our City" orator. The programme includes "something doing" every morning, afternoon and evening during the six days of the meeting.

METHODISTS PREDOMINATE.

The census clerks who have been tabulating the figures from the cards returned after one hour's work done during the recent annual Sunday-school convention held in the city have completed their work. They show that there were 6000 cards written which report on the religious proclivities of that many Crown City homes. Out of the 5000 cards but 500 report families as non-churchgoers. Of the 4500 homes of churchgoers over half are Methodists. The other denominations, in order, are Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Baptists, Christians, Episcopalians, Christian Scientists, Roman Catholics, Lutherans, Nazarenes and Friends.

The move will be made in order to get larger quarters.

GREAT FACTORY
READY FOR WORK.

EXPECT TO MAKE TWENTY MILLION POUNDS OF SUGAR.

Six Thousand Acres of Beets Have Been Contracted for and Most of
It Is in Fine Growing State—Recent Santa Ana Wind Destroyed
Fifty Acres.

ANAHEIM, April 21.—With the exception of the warehouse annex in which the finished product will be stored, and the pulp drying room, the construction work of the Anaheim Sugar Company's big plant is sufficiently advanced as to insure its completion by the first of July. Work has been interrupted by delay in the arrival of structural steel but Contractor Schindler claims that, barring unforeseen delays, the buildings will be completed within thirty days.

The storage room, on which work is now being pushed, is 175x60 feet in dimensions and 24 feet in height. A spout switch runs through it lengthwise and the floor is elevated to the height of a floor of a car for convenience in loading.

The pulp drying apparatus has only recently been added to a sugar factory. Through it the pulp after the extraction of the sugar, is dried and pressed into cakes, and the objectionable odor which has heretofore made sugar factories unpleasant neighbors, is eliminated or suppressed.

The huge stack, eleven feet in diameter at the base, which towers to a height of 125 feet has just been finished at a cost of $8000.

Nearly all machinery has been installed and the main drive shafting, stalling and appearance to an outsider. In addition to the other apparatus, twenty huge boilers have been installed in the boiler house, and are engaged in setting up the machinery, and putting the finishing touches to portions of the work.

But 160 acres of the 6000 acres contracted are planted and beets are in fine stand. One hundred and sixty acres will be planted this week. The recent Santa Ana wind damaged less than fifty acres of the crop, very few acres being total loss. Beet fields are in fine shape, nearly all being thinned and a large crop is assured.

Contracts have been made between the Anaheim Sugar Company and the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific Railroad Companies for installation of beet dumps at Downey, Norwalk, Westminster and Compton along the line of the dump will begin about May 1, and will be completed in ample time to receive beets.

From present condition of beet fields a large tonnage is assured and the factory will produce about 20,000,000 pounds of sugar.

HIGH WINDS DO DAMAGE.

Calabasas Section Suffers From Wet and Dry Weather—Grain Blown Down and Withered.

CALABASAS, April 21.—High, dry winds that blew almost continuously for four days, did considerable damage to the growing crops. In some instances the heavy grain was blown down and in others it was slightly withered. The successful raising of the sun has also been unfavorable. Further, some of the grain is heading out before it has attained its natural growth.

As a consequence, the general outlook is not quite so bright as it was a few days ago. However, there is still every indication of a big yield. Much of the grain will yet straighten up, the damage has not been extensive and many fields have not been injured at all.

CHINK SHOES

Point to Smuggling.Find Sent to Inspectors of Immigration.Bids Invited for Greater Postoffice Quarters.

LONG BEACH, April 21.—Evidence tending to show that the inner harbor of the city is being used as a landing place for Chinese smugglers who probably came in the low rakish yawl which ran the blockade of revenue officers at the Salt Lake drawbridge several weeks ago, was found this morning on the west side of the harbor. The discovery was made in the yards of the Hardwood Lumber Company in the shape of half a dozen pairs of Chinese shoes or slippers, hidden behind some lumber.

It is supposed that the contraband Chinese were landed on the west side of the channel and taken on foot across the flats, after having changed their shoes for those of American make, in order to avoid tracking. The shoes were found by employees of the Edison power plant and were at once sent to the immigration inspectors in Los Angeles.

NEED BIGGER POSTOFFICE.

Unable to agree upon terms for an enlargement of the present quarters of the local postoffice, Inspector Knox has instructed Postmaster Hirsch to ask for proposals for a new postoffice building, pending the construction of the proposed Federal building. The building need be only one story, but it must contain 7500 feet of floor space, with good light and good heating facilities. Bids will be received until May 15, and the accepted location must be ready for occupancy September 1.

At present the government is paying $1 a year for their quarters. More room was needed and the government sought an additional storeroom adjoining the postoffice. The owners, however, wanted $200 a month rental, and, being unable to agree, Inspector Knox has decided to move. It is probable an effort will be made to get the postoffice back onto Pine avenue.

BOND MISSING.

Searching the records for information concerning the ownership of the Western tunnel, under the present circumstances, which needs repairing, the city officials have discovered that in the sale of the franchise a bond of $2500 was required to keep the tunnel in repair, but no trace can be found of the bond, and it is doubtful if it was ever given. The minutes of the City Council show no record of its having been received, and Mayor Downs has no remembrance of it, and Mayor Windham says no such bond was turned over to him.

It is a critical condition, and the city is in a predicament. It will have to do it at its own expense.

The City Council tonight passed to the street committee a resolution compelling fruit and vegetable peddlers to sell out of the sale of all cull and refuse fruit, which they have been handling as largesse, which would draw down the wrath of the county Horticultural Commissioner, who has been investigating.

UNION SUIT FAILS.

Justice Underwood yesterday rendered a decision of some importance in the case of Cooper vs. the Craig Ship Plant. It developed that Cooper, who sued for $2000 was taken in tow by structural workers, when he arrived in Los Angeles, joined the union and never again worked at the ship yard or started to work.

In the whist tournament yesterday, five of them from Los Angeles. The winners were: M. S. Jenks, Mrs. S. S. Wilder, W. P. Hannaford and R. Neville of the Los Angeles Whist League, who made 55% points. The second prize was won by Sam and Edna, who made 49% points; Long Beach finished fifth. In the winning team, which is known as the Interstate, Mrs. Jenks and Mrs. Wilder have won national tournament honors. Today and tonight the Howell pair match is in progress, the winners to get a gold medal. The tournament concludes tonight.

Engineer Pinal has completed his report on the water question. A meeting of the commission will be held tomorrow to consider it in connection with its own investigations, and to prepare a report to a mass meeting for the city, at an agreed price of $250,000 for the two.

City Wharfinger Charles Rastge, who has been in charge of the city wharf since it was built, has now been declining in health of late until now he is in a critical condition, and it is feared that his son and daughter arrived this morning at his bedside in response to the call. His parents are alarmed about the safety of his son.

REDDONDO BEACH, April 21.—The remains of George G. Mahoney, who was killed by a car at Redondo Beach last afternoon at Redondo Cemetery at Redondo, Rev. W. P. Hardy officiated. The body was identified by James Mahoney, a brother who came here from Oakland yesterday afternoon.

Worried as to the safety of his son, Gordon, who is in Mexico, C. W. Gravel is making repeated efforts to get a telegram through to the latter. Young Gravel is at a ranch at El Venado, Territory De Tepec, fifty miles from the nearest railroad and twenty-five miles from the nearest telegraph station on the coast. His parents are alarmed about the safety of the young man, as there is a strong feeling against the Americans in that section, and it is feared it will be difficult for him to return now.

Foreign Business.

SAN PEDRO, April 21.—The arrival this morning of the big British tramp steamer St. George, Capt. Sanders, 272 tons out sixty-eight days from Antwerp, via Las Palmas, inaugurates a big foreign business for this port during the coming summer.

The St. George arrived with an unusual cargo, carrying 2800 tons of cement and fertilizer consigned to H. L. Guthrie & Co. The St. George brought the first cargo of foreign cement to arrive at this port in four years. It is lighter than the Southern California product and will be used on marine work by the Miner Mill in the outer harbor. The big tramp was able to dock at the wharf of the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf Company in the outer harbor, where the depth of water has recently been increased to thirty feet at low tide.

She has additional cargo consigned to San Francisco and Portland. In addition to the St. George, three other large British tramps are now on the way to this port from Antwerp with general cargo. These are the Strathgairn, which sailed March 4; the Greyhound, April 4, and the Centurion, April 3. The British steamers, Bannockburn and Penarth, are now taking cargo at Antwerp for San Pedro, which will give the port a continuous stream of foreign business during the year.

VENICE, April 21.—When the janitor of the City Hall at Tokyo opened that building for business this morning he discovered that somebody had preceded him, and he was not slow in determining that if the place had not been the victim of cracksmen it was because it had withstood their attack.

Entering the office of the Tax Collector through a door that had been broken open, the keeper of the hall found the door to the vault open and sagging on its hinges. Everywhere there were evidences of confusion. Following through the vault door he saw that, although the money safe had been the object of assault, that strong box had successfully withstood the repeated charges of dynamite and nitro glycerine that had been made against its door.

SAN DIEGO, April 21.—To raise $150,000 for a new building in twelve days is the undertaking of a committee of Y.M.C.A. directors, of which the chairman is President G. A. Davidson, of the Southern Trust & Savings bank.

The campaign ends April 30. To date the committee has a good start with one-fourth of the money in sight. In order to conduct a whirlwind campaign the committee is divided into teams, each striving to outdo the other in securing the larger amount of subscriptions.

In order to facilitate the work campaign headquarters have been established in the U. S. Grant hotel building, where a force of workers, clerks, and stenographers are maintained in imitation of headquarters of a political party. In order to stimulate the workers and to enable them to compare notes and receive instructions, the committee has arranged for luncheons to be held at the Grant Hotel. Among the smaller subscriptions received was one of $20 from a former member of the committee, who took part in the canvass for funds in that city. Many $1 subscriptions have been received from young men who desire to see a larger and well-appointed building in San Diego.

Last night a rally was held at headquarters, where it was stated that announcement of the amount of subscriptions would be made in a few days.

BRAVE SAILORS.
Commander L. F. Welsh of the torpedo boat Goldsborough declares that the act of Officer Fred Boyd and Machinist Tom Kernan in remaining in the engine-room filled with steam until an accident to the engine was temporarily repaired was genuine heroism.

The engine-room occupies a small space. En route here the hot well became overheated, and the steam began to escape. Instead of rushing for the escape hatch, the two men remained at their posts and put on a full head of steam, which allowed water to fill the hot well and pour through the pop valve in place of the steam. The men were in the steam for about fifteen minutes. When taken out they were exhausted, but recovered.

Commander Welsh states their act positively prevented an accident to the Department will be informed of their bravery.

ANGELENS IN TOWN.
One hundred and fifty members of the Los Angeles Produce Association, many accompanied by their wives and daughters, arrived this evening to spend tomorrow and Sunday. The entire membership is housed at Hotel Del Coronado. Tomorrow the visitors will be shown the sights of the city and surrounding country in autos by members of the Chamber of Commerce. Tomorrow night there will be a ball at Hotel Coronado.

With Judge W. H. Guy, of the Superior Court as referee, the first round of what promises to be a spirited contest on the part of the heirs of L. P. Wood to prevent the payment of $5000 from the estate to the late wife of Rose Marquess, was concluded today.

The authenticity of a will purporting to be that of Miss Marquess, the amount stated in it to be determined by Judge Guy, who stated that he will answer his decision within the next few days. Wood died in March, leaving an estate worth $50,000. After the will forming the present issue was all probated.

It is written in lead pencil on the margin of a newspaper. The widow, a test procedure. According to the testimony, two years ago Wood was taken ill. She was advised to move nearer the mountains. In her complaint, Mrs. Hall alleged that, as she was supposed to be in critical condition at the Redlands Hospital, her brother brought to her room Attorney Chapman and obtained from her a deed to Imperial lands, representing that it was necessary to execute the deed to prevent a contest of her father's right. GET BRAVERY MEDALS AFTER FOUR YEARS.

Two Heroes and a Rescued Girl.
At the left is J. Parks Jones, and at the right Harry Musser, both of whom received Carnegie medals yesterday. The one whose life they saved is Miss Bertha Pillsbury.

J. PARKS JONES, No. 2109 Darwin avenue, and HARRY MUSSER, who lives in Montebello, yesterday received medals from the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission for having saved the life of Miss Bertha Pillsbury, daughter of Col. and Mrs. G. E. Pillsbury of No. 1242 Orange street, in the Yosemite during the summer of 1907. The two young men prevented the girl from drowning after she had been caught in the rapids of the Merced River while bathing with a party of young people.

Both Jones and Musser risked their lives in saving that of Miss Pillsbury, all three having been dragged to the bank in an almost senseless condition. The accident happened during a camping trip. Miss Pillsbury's brother, George E. Pillsbury, and her mother, Mrs. Pillsbury, were not present at the time of the accident, except Mrs. Pillsbury, who was on land.

The girl got into deeper water than she had suspected and suddenly found herself carried away on the current. Musser was the first to see her plight and reached her just as she arose to the surface, after sinking for the first time. Thinking that he was but sacrificing his own life in a futile attempt to save hers, she pushed him from her and they were separated by the rushing water. It was then that Jones went to her rescue. He caught her by the back of the head just as she was going down for the third time, and succeeded by a prodigious feat of strength and great coolness of mind, in getting her to the shore, where her mother awaited her.

Mrs. Benjamin A. Davis, No. 1128 Logan street, sister of Jones, brought the incident of heroism to the attention of the right persons, and about a year ago young Jones was surprised to receive a call from a Pittsburgh man whose business is the investigation of cases of that kind. After talking with Miss Pillsbury and her mother, as well as other members of the camping party, this man took the trouble to go to the Yosemite Valley and visit the spot where the action occurred. Having satisfied himself in regard to all details, the representative of the Carnegie Commission reported that undoubtedly both Miss Pillsbury and young Musser would have been drowned except for the heroism of Jones, then hardly more than a boy. The result was that the young man received his medal yesterday, and that a similar recognition of courage came to Musser.

The medal is of bronze, weighing 6-1/2 ounces, and bearing the image of Andrew Carnegie in relief. The inscription is: "J. Parks Jones, who saved the life of Bertha L. Pillsbury from drowning, Yosemite, Cal., Aug. 12, 1907." In large letters encircling the medal is the legend, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

LAYS CHARGE OF FRAUD IN BIG STOCK TRANSFER.

ALLEGING that the company's stock of the par value of $999,150 was transferred fraudulently and without consideration, C. C. Withey filed a suit in the Superior Court yesterday against the Tennessee Clay Products Company and H. D. Lore, G. H. Turner, E. Grigsby, H. B. Duncan and J. A. Balesley.

Withey, according to the complaint, invested but $300 in the stock of the corporation, but he charges the company agreed to pay stock, the par value of which was in excess of $900,000, for forty acres of clay-producing land, located near Corona. In the highly-colored prospectus issued by the company it claims to own "in fee simple" 140 acres of valuable clay beds, and says the company paid 40,000 shares of stock for it. It is also set out that the company has now on hand in its office contracts which the company can begin to fill after it has its factory built, and that the object of the sale of the stock is to get money for that purpose.

After purchasing the stock Withey began to investigate the investment. It was shown, it is alleged, that the Tennessee Clay company does not own a foot of clay-bed lands in Riverside county or elsewhere. It is also charged that the statements of the prospectus in relation to contracts are false and misleading.

Investigation has also shown, it is alleged, that if the company gets the land in question at all it must be after certain mineral claims covering these beds have been patented by the claimants, and this cannot be done until the assessment work is perfected, for which

BEAUTIFUL AND LASTING.

Lima-bean Seat of Government to Build a Capital for All Time, Fire-proof and Artistic.

Plans for Ventura county's magnificent quarter-million-dollar Courthouse are well under way in the offices of Albert C. Martin, Los Angeles, and the Supervisors of that county are calling for bids for the excavation and foundation work. The building will be one of the most imposing public structures in California, and a credit to the seat of government of the prosperous lima bean section.

The building will be of the Roman Doric order, absolutely fireproof, of reinforced concrete. The floors and roofs will be enclosed with heavy brick walls. Ventura county has determined to build for all time and to avoid the short-sighted policy which has characterized public construction in some parts of the State.

All the corridors will have tile floors and paneled in hardwoods. The ceiling will be of marble with bronze balustrades. The courtroom will be a feature of which any community might be proud. Its walls will be twenty-eight feet high, wainscoted in marble and paneled in hardwoods. The ceiling will be divided into panels, with ornamental plaster beams.

Grounds will have a frontage of 20 feet by a depth of ninety-five, and are valued at about $25,000. The building itself will cost about $135,000 and the outfit for furnishings will bring this to approximately $250,000.

The building when completed will command a panorama taking in the entire city of Ventura, a large part of the surrounding valley and a rich marine view.

WOMAN WANTS TO CARRY GUN.

INTIMATES TO COURT NEEDS IT FOR PROTECTION.

Strange Request to Judge Is Outcome of Inter-Family Squabble, in Which Step-mother is Charged With Cruelty to Step-children. Community Wrought Up.

Lancaster, the scene of several bloodless battles, is again in the throes of war talk. This time the women of the community are seriously considering the advisability of arming themselves to secure protection from one another.

The critical situation is the outgrowth of Mrs. Ella Finch, the wife of P. D. Finch, having been summoned to Juvenile Court in answer to a charge that she was unusually cruel to her step-children, Fred and Saphronia.

Judge Wilbur apparently held the opinion, after he had questioned numerous witnesses and talked with the children, that the affair was an inter-family squabble which had no place in court. He continued the case for two weeks to watch developments.

When Mrs. Byron Finch, sister-in-law of the father of the children, heard this disposition made of the

THIS is not the story of the Chocolate King, complicating it and adding to the convivial are a great diva, a stunning comedienne, and—Mrs. Jack Cudahy.

The scene is laid in the Alexandria. The plot running through twenty-four hours.

The prologue dates back one week. Enter Millionaire James Ellwood Saunders of Baltimore, known as the Chocolate King. Much peevish business as Saunders registers. He faces front and demands the best suite in the house. Seizes pen in right hand and flourishes it at the clerk while he demands that he be accorded absolute quietness and that he never be disturbed after 7 o'clock at night no matter what happens. Also that every telegram that comes to him be delivered at 7 o'clock in the morning. Quick curtain as Saunders leaves for elevators accompanied by a small army of bell boys carrying his luggage.

Act 1 opens the first of this week. Saunders has been enjoying himself luxuriously in his suite. He has been in the receipt of from 75 to 100 telegrams every morning from his agents all over the United States. He has secured the quietness that he desired above all things. All is still. Sh-h-h! Enter Manager Connor of the Divine Saah. He condescends to inform the Alexandria management that Madame Ellwood Saunders will come to the hotel a few days and that he will take best suite in the house.

Manager explains earnestly that James Ellwood Saunders has the very best in the house but that there is an exquisite suite just adjoining.

Connor performs much business to show his peevishness. Manager Whitmore is helpless as Saunders would think of moving as soon as he would think of losing his right eye. Connor dejectedly takes the second best in the Alexandria.

THE PLOT THICKENS.

Scene two of Act 1. Enter Blanche Ring, superb comedienne, accompanied by her husband and other excess baggage. Blanche has the money and the habit of getting the best that is for sale. She wants the best suite in the Alexandria and Manager Whitmore explains that James Ellwood Saunders has it.

Miss Ring, between humming portions of "The Top of the Morning to You," asks who this Saunders person is. She is told that he is the Chocolate King of Baltimore. Much discussion. Finally Miss Ring agrees to take the suite adjoining Saunders on the opposite side to that occupied by Madame Bernhardt.

Scene three of Act 1. Enter Mrs. Jack Cudahy. Walks up to the register with languid gliding step, with blasé air she asks for the best suite there is in the hotel. Again James Ellwood Saunders is said to have that choice apartment, but if Mrs. Cudahy would kindly look at the suite just across the hall from that occupied by Mr. Saunders she would find it very charming and almost a duplicate of that occupied by Saunders. Mrs. Cudahy inspects said suite and engages it.

INDUSTRIAL CITY SCHEME.

Model Factory Center May Be Linked to Sea by Eight-Mile Canal.

A new industrial city, built along model lines and supplying a locus for six or more of the largest and most important manufacturing concerns in the Southwest, is projected for a large tract of land near Dominguez, midway between Los Angeles and the sea. It is the intention of the backers, who number among the men of large influence and extensive wealth here, to secure sufficient territory on all sides of the proposed town to insure its freedom from any except the most desirable component factors.

The three large concerns which now have the scheme in contemplation are tentatively considering employing their chosen site as a nucleus about which may ultimately center the greatest factors in the industrial world of the Southland.

A daring feature of the plans as at present outlined consists in the proposed linking of the site with the ocean front by means of an eight-mile canal, navigable by sea-going vessels.

While the scheme is as yet in its infancy, there is definite assurance that the next few months will see developments of enormous importance to the industries, not only of Los Angeles, but of the entire Coast.

case, she calmly asked the judge to give her permission to carry a gun.

"I've got to go by her house (pointing to Mrs. Ella Finch) when I go to town, and I want something to protect myself with after this," declared the justice assured her she needed no permit if she desired to arm herself while traveling in country.

The community in which the Finch live was apparently in court. The fine members were startled by the surprising request. As they left the courtroom they made inquiries of the Police Commission, apparently thinking that that body could offer them protection in some manner. Others declared that if certain persons were going to carry a gun it was to them to do likewise.

The hearing was begun at the instigation of Mrs. Beulah Lewis, wife of J. J. Lewis, and an aunt of the children. She asserted that the mother was extraordinarily cruel to the children. It was alleged that she beat them, made them work in the field and did not clothe them properly. It was also asserted that the girl was compelled to wear overalls, although nearly 14 years old, and that she was forced to sleep in a haystack.

There was some corroborating evidence, but the children denied the charges, and their mother was not allowed to testify. They were well dressed and appeared to be healthy.

The father, who recovered from injuries he suffered about two months ago, when a small engine fell on his crushing his chest and abdomen, is now in the hospital.

"MUY BONITA CIUDAD."

Picturesque Red Indian Chief Yuma Recreation Police Thinks I Angeles City Life Fine.

Capt. Chaleco, head of the Tur Indian police, 6 feet 2 inches in stockings, his black hair hanging his shoulders, was in the city yesterday as a witness before the United States grand jury, investigating the fringements of the Federal law in Arizona.

When he had given his testimony through an interpreter, the big Indian signed his name in Spanish upon demand upon Uncle Sam for $25.10, amount of his mileage and expenses one day's attendance upon court.

The tall, gaunt red man, who graduated from the blanket, could speak but little English, but pulled lustily upon a strong stogie. Except in Spanish, his conversation was very limited to "Ugh," and it was with difficulty that he could make his self understood. All efforts to get him into conversation failed. When he suggested that he have his picture taken he was about ready to go up the warpath.

But the old man sat by the hour in the open window, and at intervals could be heard to mutter his gratification in pure Castilian over the beauty of metropolitan life.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The arrest of F. W. Frankhouser, former superintendent of fire alarm telegraph, may lead to big Gamewell case.

Go-go leader was branded as a vagrant of finance in a trial before Judge Craig yesterday.

Worshippers of Buddha are seeking a contract for erecting a temple. They will be permitted to proceed with their plans for erecting a temple.

The husband of "Splish Me" girl is suing a separation. "I don't want you, anyway," she says.

FRANKHOUSER MAY HOLD KEY.

AMEWELL MYSTERY MAY BE SOLVED BY PRISONER.

Officials Admit That Information From Him Is Desired and That He Remained Here After Giving Name—Others May Be Brought Into the Net.

The arrest of F. W. Frankhouser, former superintendent of fire alarm telegraph, here, in Portland, may lead to the beginning of an exposure in connection with the purchase of $150,000 worth of Gamewell fire alarm apparatus nearly four years ago.

City Auditor Myers, who has been chief of instruction in procuring Frankhouser's arrest, said yesterday that "it is probable Frankhouser knows a great deal that will aid in clearing up some of the Gamewell transactions."

The specific charge on which the former superintendent is under arrest is falsifying a public record. It was completed on complaint of F. W. Lloyd, a secret service employee of the Auditor, who went to Portland last Monday.

A year ago Frankhouser was called to the Mayor's office to answer questions before the Fire Commission. After an hour he emerged, wrote out a resignation, presented it and left. At that meeting he was confronted with the charge of selling copper wire and pig-lead to a junk dealer named Scher for $20. He at that time denied the charge and said he had paid the money to the city and finally admitted that he had paid it only two days previous to the hearing to former Chief Laps, whom it was turned into the City treasury. Frankhouser said he had the money in his desk for weeks waiting to turn it in.

The man whose identity was questioned by several witnesses is E. L. Bryant, the prophet of the East Siders. With his brother, W. H. Bryant, he led the hyphenated cohorts last fall. The suit is that of G. Edwin Alderson against Marion R. Smith. The plaintiff is seeking to have Smith declared a trustee of property valued at $5000 and to have the defendant transfer to him one-half of the title to the land.

Smith is a brother-in-law of Bryant. Through various assignments he became the owner of an undivided interest in the land which had been held by James H. Perkins, who had been a partner of E. L. Bryant in a deal.

It is asserted that in that case he did not object to the property being placed in Smith's name, as they were assured that he was merely holding it for them and to have the defendant transfer to him one-half of the title to the land.

It is declared that Smith was made trustee at the request of Bryant, who is alleged to have declared that he did not keep any of his property in his own name, because he was afraid some of his many debtors would take it away from him.

BUDDHISTS ASK REFORM.

WANT CONTRACT CHANGED.

This city may have a Buddhist temple. Judge Clark ruled in favor of Junja Isumida, a Japanese, who has instituted proceedings to reform a contract in order that he may get a lot for the edifice to stand on.

Several months ago a band of worshippers of Buddha gathered a sum of money for the purpose of erecting a temple. It was sufficient only to pay the first charge on a lot which they purchased on the installment plan from Mr. and Mrs. Ward B. Harrington.

GETS INTERLOCUTORY DECREE.

Judge Clark of Ventura county, who has been holding divorce cases for a few days, endeavored to assume the role of side-de-camp to Cupid yesterday in the suit of Ella M. against Oscar H. Nunnalee, and was sharply rebuffed.

After he had listened to Mrs. Nunnalee's recital as to the manner in which she had been choked by her husband and her mouth had been severely lacerated by his fist, and to Nunnalee's denial and explanation that she had run into the door, he stopped the case and encouraged them to forgive and forget.

"Not for me," exclaimed the wife. "I have lost all confidence in him and I want my freedom."

Nunnalee formerly figured in political circles and held public positions of minor import. For a while he was a clear dealer in the city.

He is now the proprietor of Hotel Arravanna, No. 415 West Seventh street. She is a stenographer. The grounds for the action were failure to provide and desertion. The magistrate reluctantly granted an interlocutory decree. As the parties left the courtroom he called after them their differences before the time for final decree arrives. They have previously arranged a property settlement.

His work and that these stations should be required now before the land becomes too expensive.

He has also asked for three additional street flushing machines.

Deny Authority.

The theory of the new charter that superior officials have the "right to fire" subordinates, subject to review by the Civil Service Commission, is being tested by P. Quinn and J. L. Malone, street foremen dismissed by W. M. Humphreys, Inspector of Public Works. They have raised the technical point that Humphreys is no longer "Inspector of Public Works," because the charter amendments provide that such an officer shall not be a member of the board. Therefore, he may not dismiss. The Civil Service Commission has asked the City Attorney to decide.

Pay for Dead Horse.

Trying to capture thieves who stole the horse and buggy of Elder W. H. Pendleton from in front of the church at Eighth and Maple avenue or the night of the 14th inst., Patrolman La Niece fired at them. The bullet struck and killed Elder Pendleton's horse. Now the elder has filed a claim against the city for $125 damages for the death of the animal.

Mayor Favors Bonfires.

The election seems to be settled. The Mayor yesterday sent a communication to the Council saying he wanted the fire ordinance amended in order that the Fire Commission may issue permits for bonfires. The Mayor says he has had many requests for the issue of this sort. City Hall politicians are asking if the Mayor is getting ready for his own bonfire next December.

At the Courthouse.

CHARGE JUGGLING TO POLITICIAN.

EVIDENCE STRIKES AGAINST THE GOO-GOO LEADER.

Suit Is Brought to Have His Brother-in-Law Declared a Trustee to Certain Property and to Have Him Transfer to the Plaintiff a Half of Title to the Land.

A leader of the Go-go politics in the Boyle Heights ballfield is not above juggling his private affairs to the detriment of his creditors, according to evidence which was introduced in a trial before Judge Craig yesterday.

The man whose identity was questioned by several witnesses is E. L. Bryant, the prophet of the East Siders. With his brother, W. H. Bryant, he led the hyphenated cohorts last fall.

The suit is that of G. Edwin Alderson against Marion R. Smith. The plaintiff is seeking to have Smith declared a trustee of property valued at $5000 and to have the defendant transfer to him one-half of the title to the land.

Their followers did not contribute to the purchase of the lot, but were charged that the Harringtons took advantage of this fact to change the contract so that it would prohibit them from building the kind of structure they desired.

Isumida wants the contract changed so that it will permit the persons of his faith to proceed with their plans. He also asks for $1000 damages. Judge Clark took the case under advisement.

WIFE SAYS NO.

GETS INTERLOCUTORY DECREE.

Judge Clark of Ventura county, who has been holding divorce cases for a few days, endeavored to assume the role of side-de-camp to Cupid yesterday in the suit of Ella M. against Oscar H. Nunnalee, and was sharply rebuffed.

WANT TO BORROW.

GERMAIN EXECUTORS PETITION.

The petition of the executors of the estate of the late Eugene Germain, capitalist and business man, to mortgage part of the property for $175,000 was heard before Judge Rives yesterday and was taken under consideration.

The executors and the heirs have agreed that it will be more profitable for the estate to meet the debts by giving a mortgage than to sell part of the property.

The capitalist left property valued at a million dollars. There were debts aggregating $665,019. There has been a partial distribution, the Germain heirs having received $100,000. Caroline Germain, the widow, the debts have been reduced until they amount to only $119,350. There is now in the possession of the executors property valued at $400,000.

Germain gave notes to the German Savings & Loan Society for $50,000 and $35,000. The former will be outlawed on June 15, it is understood that the association will demand for the full settlement unless the debts are met before the time limit.

It is proposed to mortgage Hotel Germain, Tenth and Hope streets, which is valued at $100,000, and property at Fourth and Los Angeles streets, which is appraised at $250,000. Since the death of Germain on February 1, 1909, the estate which has remained in the control of the executors has increased in value and it is their belief that the future increases will more than pay the interest on the proposed mortgage.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

FEEL IN CATTLEGUARD. The suit of Mrs. Emma O. Baker against the Los Angeles Pacific Railway for $20,000 for personal injuries suffered when she fell through a cattle guard on August 23 of last year, was called for trial before a jury in Judge House's court yesterday. She was employed at the Soldiers' Home and made a trip to Santa Monica. Being a stranger, the people of "Boostville" this year are up in arms over a number of important questions, and if all that has been said is true, there will not be a dull moment.

It is advertised that one issue of importance to be determined is the question of prize rights of the "Boostville" women. It is understood that the suffragettes are indignant over this proposed restriction of their activities, and have retained former Judge Waldo M. York as their second. Judge of the Peace Frank S. Forbes will act as referee.

Dr. Y. A. Lamb is said to be a candidate for the office of moderator. At least there have been whisperings to this effect. He is supposed to know something about a certain party of lobbyists that is having no success in their efforts to bring about a consolidation of the offices of moderator and official elder-tester. This bill is said to be a money-making device, but it is not clear what the official elder-tester is.

Seriously speaking the meeting is expected to be the best the society has ever held and a large attendance of New Englanders is looked for.

SET HIM FREE. A Jury in Judge McCormick's court yesterday gave a verdict of not guilty in the case of R. S. Schirmer, who was charged with an assault with a deadly weapon on Brooks Hardy.

POSTPONED. Judge Willis yesterday postponed the trial of Willis Ernesting on a charge of murder to May 25. Ernesting was found guilty of having killed William Salter on August 1, 1908, and was sentenced to serve twenty years in the penitentiary. The Supreme Court granted him a new trial.

OFF TO THE COUNTRY. Judge Willis will leave tonight for Matilla for a week's vacation. The magistrate, who has been unwell, decided that he needed a rest.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of Incorporation were filed yesterday by the Barr Lumber Company, directors O. H. Barr, Thomas Barr and S. L. Henry; capital stock, $50,000, subscribed, $20,000.

OVER THE ROAD. N. Gonzalez was sent to lone for two years by Judge Willis yesterday, for having broken into a rooming-house, stolen a watch, G. Charles Bullen was placed on probation for three years by Judge McCormick. He passed worthless checks.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

Hugger of Women on Street Gets Off With Light Fine Through Intervention of His Wife.

David Peters, street hugger, was sentenced to serve fifteen days in jail yesterday by Police Judge Frederickson, with the alternative of a fine of $15. He paid.

While intoxicated, Peters permitted his amorous desires to get the better of his sense Thursday afternoon and started in a moon-bugging crusade. In the midst of his operations he was met by Police Lieutenant Lee Heath, who lost no time in detaching him.

When arraigned before Police Judge Frederickson, Peters asked to be let off easy, saying that his wife would back him. He was the police officer's better half, and Justice Frederickson deferred sentence until she could come to court.

Yesterday morning she appeared. After admitting the identity of her spouse, she pleaded for his release. Encouraged with the fine and a warning.

Laundrymen Will Fight.

Notice was served yesterday by the attorneys for the dozen or more Chinese and Japanese laundrymen, arrested several days ago for violating the laundry ordinance, that they will file demurrers with Justice Rose on Friday of next week.

According to the lawyers of the Asiatics, their clients are being legislated against because they are not natives of this country. They aver that the American laundrymen, whether their plants are large or small, are not being molested by the police.

The fight against the laundry ordinance will be carried up through the courts, if the orientals are defeated in the lower tribunal.

Enforce Smoke Law.

In their crusade against smoking on the rear end of streets cars, Patrolman Crow and Rhy yesterday accused four violators of the ordinance. Three were non-residents and not familiar with the law. They were turned loose, but the other was assessed $10.

According to the police, street-car crews have experienced no little trouble within the past few months in inducing passengers to respect the smoking rule. Frequent encounters have resulted, but as the crews possess no police powers, the violators escaped punishment. The patrolmen were given the special assignment, as a result.

Christian Jantzen, who, on Thursday, was held by Justice Rives to answer to the Superior Court on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, was yesterday charged with forgery.

This grew out of the affair that brought him into court first, when he was alleged to have traded worthless securities and titles to lands for $4000 in Fresno county belonging to George Jude, Herbert B. Shepherd and C. P. Hurditch, valued at over $80,000.

ALLEGED DEED SHOWS FORGERY.

FIGURES IN RANCH DEAL THAT NOW IS IN COURT.

It Was Given in Exchange and Shows a Direct Transfer—Signs of Erasure and Other Characteristics According to Prosecution Indicate It Has Been Tampered With.

The preliminary examination was set at the request of Jantzen's attorney, F. M. Spencer, to Monday. Bail was fixed at $2500. Jantzen, who is under bond on the other count, went back to the County Jail, where he appeared for the preliminary examination.

The new complaint sworn to by Shepherd and issued through Deputy District Attorney Richardson, asserts that Jantzen forged a warranty deed to a lot in Tacoma. This deed was sold for taxes and is now owned by Thomas J. Badcock. The original deed seems to have remained for a time in the possession of Mrs. McDonald. When communicated with at the time of the Jantzen disclosures she was surprised to know that it had come to Los Angeles.

Her husband testified in Jantzen's examination Thursday that he believed it might have been abstracted from among his papers. He had had dealings with J. A. McCarthy, who appeared later in transactions in which Jantzen was interested, and thought that McCarthy might furnish the connecting link.

The deed shows the transfer to have been made directly from McDonald to Jantzen. McDonald says he never saw the other until summoned to testify. The instrument is said to show signs of erasure where the name is written, and the writing is not the same, apparently, as the rest of it. A close scrutiny, according to the prosecuting attorneys, J. Horton and Richardson, shows the name Nancy J. McDonald, faintly traced beneath Jantzen's. In some places through the text the word "he" appears, and in some it is written "him." The prosecution claims that the forgery is clumsy and obvious.

The Tacoma deed was simply one of a number that could be produced to hold Jantzen on. He said the three victims were given a deed and abstract to 350 acres of Missouri land, among the properties exchanged. A man was sent to investigate this, who learned that the tract had been in possession of the same owner since it was granted by the State years ago.

The fight to get back their land has nearly ruined Shepherd, Hurditch and Jude. They say that the property, long lack of attention and irrigation, has rapidly depreciated in value.

MOTHER SEEKS SON.

Mrs. Rebecca Cummings of Akron, O., has written to Postmaster Harrison for information concerning her son. She had a report that the boy was drowned at Caramba, Fla., but she afterward learned that the information was not correct, and that he had come to California.

HOT TIME AT TOWN MEETING.

Members of New England Society Kept Up to Expecting Most Any Fracas Monday Night.

An exciting time is promised for next Monday night at Blanchard Hall, where the New England Society of Los Angeles is to hold its annual town meeting. There have been two meetings before, but the people of "Boostville" this year are up in arms over a number of important questions, and if all that has been said is true, there will not be a dull moment.

It is advertised that one issue of importance to be determined is the question of prize rights of the "Boostville" women. It is understood that the suffragettes are indignant over this proposed restriction of their activities, and have retained former Judge Waldo M. York as their second. Judge of the Peace Frank S. Forbes will act as referee.

Dr. Y. A. Lamb is said to be a candidate for the office of moderator. At least there have been whisperings to this effect. He is supposed to know something about a certain party of lobbyists that is having no success in their efforts to bring about a consolidation of the offices of moderator and official elder-tester. This bill is said to be a money-making device, but it is not clear what the official elder-tester is.

Seriously speaking the meeting is expected to be the best the society has ever held and a large attendance of New Englanders is looked for.

SET HIM FREE. A Jury in Judge McCormick's court yesterday gave a verdict of not guilty in the case of R. S. Schirmer, who was charged with an assault with a deadly weapon on Brooks Hardy.

POSTPONED. Judge Willis yesterday postponed the trial of Willis Ernesting on a charge of murder to May 25. Ernesting was found guilty of having killed William Salter on August 1, 1908, and was sentenced to serve twenty years in the penitentiary. The Supreme Court granted him a new trial.

OFF TO THE COUNTRY.

Judge Willis will leave tonight for Matilla for a week's vacation. The magistrate, who has been unwell, decided that he needed a rest.

INCORPORATIONS.

Articles of Incorporation were filed yesterday by the Barr Lumber Company, directors O. H. Barr, Thomas Barr and S. L. Henry; capital stock, $50,000, subscribed, $20,000.

OVER THE ROAD.

N. Gonzalez was sent to lone for two years by Judge Willis yesterday, for having broken into a rooming-house, stolen a watch, G. Charles Bullen was placed on probation for three years by Judge McCormick. He passed worthless checks.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

Hugger of Women on Street Gets Off With Light Fine Through Intervention of His Wife.

David Peters, street hugger, was sentenced to serve fifteen days in jail yesterday by Police Judge Frederickson, with the alternative of a fine of $15. He paid.

While intoxicated, Peters permitted his amorous desires to get the better of his sense Thursday afternoon and started in a moon-bugging crusade. In the midst of his operations he was met by Police Lieutenant Lee Heath, who lost no time in detaching him.

When arraigned before Police Judge Frederickson, Peters asked to be let off easy, saying that his wife would back him. He was the police officer's better half, and Justice Frederickson deferred sentence until she could come to court.

Yesterday morning she appeared. After admitting the identity of her spouse, she pleaded for his release. Encouraged with the fine and a warning.

Laundrymen Will Fight. Notice was served yesterday by the attorneys for the dozen or more Chinese and Japanese laundrymen, arrested several days ago for violating the laundry ordinance, that they will file demurrers with Justice Rose on Friday of next week.

According to the lawyers of the Asiatics, their clients are being legislated against because they are not natives of this country. They aver that the American laundrymen, whether their plants are large or small, are not being molested by the police.

The fight against the laundry ordinance will be carried up through the courts, if the orientals are defeated in the lower tribunal.

Piling Up.

Money Loaned on Improved Property

If you own any improved property, on which you would like to make a loan—our plan of repayment will prove most convenient and satisfactory.

You may desire the money to enlarge your present business or for some entirely new enterprise—our plan makes it possible for you to repay the loan directly from your increased profits.

You arrange to pay something on both principal and interest each month—whatever amount you decide beforehand. If you are in a position to pay larger amounts of $100 or multiples thereof, you may do so at any time and thus shorten the life of the loan and decrease the interest.

There are other good points—call or write.

TRAFFIC RECORD.
TWENTY YEARS
IN THE HARNESS.
TERMINATES RAILROAD CAREER
FOR BUSINESS.

District Passenger Agent of Espino
in This City Once Messenger Boy, Becomes Head Agricultural Company—Insurance Disturbances in Mexico Amount to Nothing.

With a record of twenty years of service in Los Angeles with the Southern Pacific Company, N. R.
Martin yesterday resigned his position of district passenger agent to engage in private business.

Martin began his railroad career as messenger boy in the freight office in 1891. Two years later he was transferred to the passenger department, where he was successively advertising agent, ticket clerk, city ticket agent and district passenger agent.

In May, 1910, Martin, at the request of Col. Randolph, vice-president of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, made a trip over that line from Nogales to Acaponeta through Hermosillo, Guaymas, San Blas, Culiacan and Mazatlan.
The object was to determine the possibility of colonization.

The result of the exhaustive investigation made by Martin has been the organization of the Mutual Agricultural Company, with Martin president and general manager. Other well-known railroad men are officers and directors. E. F. Conna is vice-president, A. A. Polhamus, secretary and treasurer, and E. W. McGee and D.
W. Pautus, additional directors. The general offices will be in the Grosse building.

The company will farm and develop the acres in the State of Sinaloa.
"I am voluntarily leaving the service of the Southern Pacific after twenty years of service, effective May 1," said Martin. "It is a belief that I can better my financial condition very naturally by working for myself. I have agreed with the newly-organized company that I will take charge of the property owned by the corporation on a reasonable contract for several years, if desired, and get it into cultivation as rapidly as possible. I will pass part of my time in Los Angeles at the headquarters office, but the greater portion of my stay will be in Mexico."

LAND VALUES UNAFFECTED.
Espino Randolph, vice-president of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, has written a letter to Martin concerning conditions in Mexico, particularly in reference to effect on the purchase of real estate. He says:

"The present social revolution amounts absolutely to nothing when it comes to a question of considering whether one will or will not buy real estate. In fact, it gives the best sort of an opportunity to buy, because people from abroad do not know that the revolution is greatly exaggerated.
"It cannot be denied that there are great forces which are disturbing the tranquility of some portions of the country, but there has been no fighting in Sinaloa, and very little in Sonora.
In fact, you might say none, except within the last few days, and that has been done up at Douglas, close to the American border. The trouble has been in the State of Chihuahua, in the mountainous sections where there has been some destruction of property and some real interference with business. All interference on the West Coast is imaginary."

"The worst that could happen would be that some roving band of outlaws might come along and steal a cow or horse or something of that sort.
There has been no malicious destruction of property, and they could not hurt real estate."
"It is also a notable fact that the so-called revolutionists are very particular not to interfere with the property of Americans or any other foreigners."

"I have never in my life known better opportunities for profitable investment than the rich lands of the West Coast now offer."

OFFICIALS ON WAY.
HEADQUARTERS VISIT.
Executive officials of the Salt Lake Railroad are arriving in Los Angeles for the semi-annual visit to the headquarters offices of the company. W.
H. Bancroft, vice-president, is already here. Ex-Senator Clark, president, is expected Monday. J. Ross Clark, vice-president, arrived in New York from Europe yesterday, and will reach Los Angeles Friday.
Bancroft is also vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line. Other railroad officials arriving here yesterday were: D. E. Burley, general passenger agent of the Oregon Short Line; Fred Knickerbocker, assistant to the general manager, and E. E. Calvin, vice-president of the Southern Pacific.

TRAFFIC MEN COMING.
The Los Angeles Traffic Association will entertain 150 members of the Transportation Club of San Francisco, Sunday and Monday. The visitors from the Bay City will arrive in San Francisco Sunday morning on the steamship Bahr of the San Francisco and Portland steamship line. They will be taken for a general trolley ride to Casa Verdugo, lunch at the Hotel
Maryland, in Pasadena, and thence go to Sierra Madre, participating in entertainment features now being arranged. The Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to assist in the entertainment of the visitors.

NEEDS LEGAL PROOF.
Groom Calls on Justice to Notify Parents He Is Married and Request Is Compelled With.

John Du Mont asked Justice Summerfield yesterday to notify his parents that on January 10 he had taken Marie Wharton as his wife.
Du Mont's parents are in the East, and evidently he has not written often to them. They asked W. M. Mc-Donough, superintendent of the Human League, to look into the marriage when the son finally let them know of it.

McDonough wrote to Du Mont, asking him to furnish proof, to set at rest the mind of his mother, who is old and feeble. Justice Summerfield wrote her a letter which Du Mont promised to mail.

FACE IS CUT.
James Walsh, employed as a butcher
by the Los Angeles Packing Company, was a victim of a painful accident at the plant yesterday afternoon. In grinding on an overhead beam for a large knife, he knocked the blade from its resting place. The falling knife struck him on the right cheek, a fracture of an inch below the eye. The optic nerve was grazed by the steel, and a large artery severed. He became unconscious from loss of blood and was removed in one of the company's wagons to the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were attended by Police Surgeon Kildner.

The authoritative character of the contents of the New Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica in all questions of learning and research is paralleled by its practical utility as a work of reference in ordinary emergencies. How closely it is designed to meet modern requirements in this respect is reflected in the following classification of contributors

By Professions or Occupations
Historians and Archaeologists 327
Sociologists and Economists 72
Geographers and Explorers 64
Biologists and Agriculturists 107
Mathematicians, Physicists and Chemists 93
Geologists, Astronomers and Meteorologists 65
Ministers, Diplomats and Government Officials 126
Theologians 161
Lawyers 75
Physicians and Surgeons 75
Engineers and Architects 73
Business Men and Manufacturers 62
Naval and Military Officers 79

To grasp at first thought the varied utility for study or for reference of so vast and original a work as the Eleventh Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica is impossible. To consider the most obvious uses which any intelligent reader will make of it is to look ahead for years. Yet, unless the question of the price to be paid is altogether disregarded, the decision to examine the details of the present limited offer with the idea of becoming a subscriber on the most favorable terms possible must be immediate.

In fact, the present occasion may be regarded in the light of a twofold opportunity. In making his application now the reader will (1) receive the benefit of the "advance of publication price," (2) obtain early delivery of his set. All orders are being filled in rotation. Early subscribers will accordingly receive their books far in advance of the thousands who delay entering their orders until next month.

The New (11th) Edition of this Encyclopaedia Britannica is a Fresh and Original Survey of Human Thought, Learning and Achievement to the Year 1910. The work, in 23 volumes and Index, is in two forms—

(1) On INDIA PAPER (very light and opaque) in Three Styles of Binding: CLOTH, FULL FLEXI-BLE SHEEPSKIN, and FULL FLEXIBLE MO-ROCCO, the volumes to be ONE INCH THICK (960 to 1060 pages.)
The India paper impression bound in either Full Sheep or Full Morocco is strongly recommended.

(2) On ordinary book-paper in Three Styles of Binding:
CLOTH, HALF MOROCCO, and FULL MOROC-CO, the volumes to be 2 3/4 inches thick (960 to 1060 pages.)

$4.00 a Volume is the before-publication price for the Cloth-bound copies on ordinary paper (each volume being a large quarto, of from 960 to 1060 pages, and containing an average of 1,500,000 words,) and $4.25 is the price for India paper, bound in Cloth (each volume but 1 inch thick,) and containing exactly the same contents.

To Be Increased to $7.50 a Volume
It is intended that after May 31st the price shall be increased, the first increase to go into effect from that date, and the work will continue to be sold on an ascending scale of prices of which the ultimate price will be $7.50, the same as that of the 9th Edition.

Terms of Payment
After delivery, the cash price (at the special rate of $4.00 a volume for ordinary paper, and $4.25 a volume for India paper) may be paid in full, or at a slight increase may be divided into 4, 8 or 12 monthly payments. Payment will also be accepted in monthly installments of $5.00 only.

The New Edition is sold direct to the public or through the leading booksellers and no agents or canvassers are recognized or employed.

Illustrated Prospectus (40 pp.) 56 specimen pages on India paper, 4 specimen plates, and form of application showing the special advance terms, will be sent by return of post if the reader will write name and address below, tear off this corner and post to

S.S.S. CURES ALL
S.S.S. SKIN DISEASE

Health in its magnificence appeals to everyone, and especially is this true of a clear skin, free from eruptions and disease. We instinctively realize that back of this desirable condition pure, rich blood is flowing through the system, furnishing nutriment to all the tissues.

This perfect condition of the skin exists as long as the blood is normal, but when it becomes contaminated with humors and acids its supply of nutritive properties is greatly lessened, and it becomes a sharp, acid fluid which diseases instead of preserving the natural health and texture of the skin. Then come Skin Diseases; the character of the eruption depending upon the nature of the humor with which the blood is infected. If there is an excess of acid the circulation the trouble is characterized by itching and burning eruptions
Other impurities produce watery blisters, rashes, etc., commonly known Eczema, Tetter or Salt Rheum while still other morbid matters the circulation cause Acne, pples and like troubles.

It is right and proper to what relief one may from the

The Times regrets that its steamed copy-editor should have made a philological blunder on the occasion and the opportunity for burying distributives at The Times. In mentioning the fact that its contemporary is friendly to Judas, The Times did not intend to compare its contemporary with Judas. The Times would not be guilty of an injustice to Mr. Iscariot, for it will be remembered that Judas had the grace to end and hang himself.

Among the Shakespeare-lovers filling the town of Stratford during the month of May by no means the least enthusiastic will hail from the shores of the western continent. America has a right to claim the spirit of Shakespeare. Outside the works of the master himself to be presented in the royal theater at this special festival only one play will be staged, and that play will be the work of a young American girl dramatist, "The Pipet." Josephine Preston Feabody's romantic fantasy, which won the world-prize offered by the Commemoration Committee in London, will be the only modern drama deemed worthy of inclusion among the masterpieces of Shakespeare. Of all great actors none ever interpreted the spirit of the master-dramatist as convincingly as the two American actors, Booth and Barrett. In colloquial speech, even in slang expressions, the spirit of Shakespeare has impressed itself more evidently on the American than the English development of our common language. The Shakespeare Club is a typical American institution; it has no counterpart on the other side of the Atlantic. A Shakespearean repertoire, when presented by star actors, draws greater crowds in Los Angeles and even in meat-packing Chicago than in base London or commercial Liverpool. Certainly we have inherited the spirit of Shakespeare, though his bones lie under the channel in the Stratford church.

In spite of all the hullaballo everything is quiet in Tokio.

Men get rich by using their discretion, and for the most part, as would seem from the way they conduct themselves ever after, they use it all up.—Cruck.
